“We wanted to create an experiential shopping, dining and hospitality district. A gathering of different types of destinations for people who live here and for those who visit.

That hasn’t been available in Napa in one significant place - until now.”

- Todd Zapolski, Managing Partner First Street Napa

The Vibe

DOWNTOWN NAPA

First Street Napa is in the heart of Napa and the gateway to the rest of the valley.

Downtown Napa offers a range of quaint experiences, exquisite tasting rooms, world-class dining, elegant lodging with spa offerings, and a relaxed way of life.

Napa Valley is a coveted place to live and visit, but First Street Napa brings these amenities together in a walk-able district.

The iconic wine growing region is about an hour from San Francisco. Locals seek space and serenity – a respite from the pace and congestion of the city – and visitors seek to live like the locals. Those who live here, value high quality of life, rich culture and California's charm.

More to explore
IN THE HEART OF DOWNTOWN NAPA

Enjoy each lifestyle concept in the middle of lush wine country while appreciating the modern, thoughtful experiences that provide something new with each visit. First Street Napa contains a handful of international brands like Anthropologie, Free People, Johnny Was, Lululemon, and Charlie Palmer Steak, with a complement of smaller independent specialty merchants and local multi-generational natives offering unique new retail concepts and experiences.

These fresh boutiques offer a mix of west coast artisanal products, local children’s clothing, premium denim, home and garden furnishings as well as fine jewelry and international designs.

A Place To Gather

FSN COMMUNITY FEATURES

Napa has gone through a revitalization, quickly becoming a center of excitement and ingenuity that invites locals and visitors alike to explore. More and more retail concepts are new merchants exclusive to the Napa Valley with additional retailers leaving other locations to be a part of First Street Napa.

First Street Napa is home to buildings featured on the National Historic Register. With decorative commercial façades, these buildings are the remaining examples of turn of the century commercial architecture in Napa's downtown, offering a unique blend of history with modern elements.

The design at First Street Napa provides beautiful spaces for the public to meet and enjoy. Outdoor gathering patios, and a beautiful fire pit in the center corridor are just steps away - an oasis from busy lifestyles and a central gathering place in the heart of Napa. Open air pop-up markets have populated the events, providing ways to engage, and to bring Napa together.

The influence of art and community can be found around every corner, from the golden squirrel sitting under the oak tree, to our colorful frog, Freckles - as elements of joy and surprise for all children wandering through. Large colorful murals and sculptures, including the #WeLoveYouNapa installation from Mikey Kelly, and selected pieces from Di Rosa Center for Contemporary Art have been created & procured specifically for First Street Napa providing exposure for Northern California artists and instagrammable moments for visitors.

“Downtown Napa is increasingly becoming the center of Napa Valley. It’s where people are beginning their days and ending their nights and even discovering reasons to stay downtown to explore.”

- Matt Stamp and Ryan Stetins Compline Wine Bar + Restaurant

2 Outdoor seating areas and open spaces.

The property provide gathering and informal meeting places. With easy parking, plenty of spots to connect, and unique boutiques, Napa is the place to amplify your creative flow, work hard and enjoy the lifestyle that so many covet.

1 Unique wine experiences abound.

Compline has been named to Wine Enthusiast’s list of America’s 100 Best Wine Restaurants. Brown Estate was once a members only club until the sleek downtown location opened for non-member experiences. Mayacamas offers a modern blend of library vintages mixed with inviting home wares. Vineyard 29 offers an elevated but casual experience.

3 Looking for a different perspective?

The rooftop bar Sky & Vine boasts 360-degree views of the valley from its alfresco dining area and the seasonally-inspired cocktail menu featuring local ingredients and spirits. Get comfy next to the beautiful fire pits and perhaps snuggle under a blanket during the cooler seasons.

4 Seasonal treats or tempting splurges.

With outdoor patio seating, modern takes on bar bites, a range of dining options and the culinary artistry of acclaimed Chef Charlie Palmer and Executive Chef Francisco Lopez - you get to choose when to indulge. An immersion of fresh takes and seasonal dishes that will keep these restaurants at the top of your go-to list.

Unprecedented Growth THE TRANSFORMATION OF DOWNTOWN NAPA

Over 60 new and expanded stores, restaurants and businesses have opened their doors in the past two years.

More than 20 of those businesses have been at First Street Napa in 2020 - 2021.

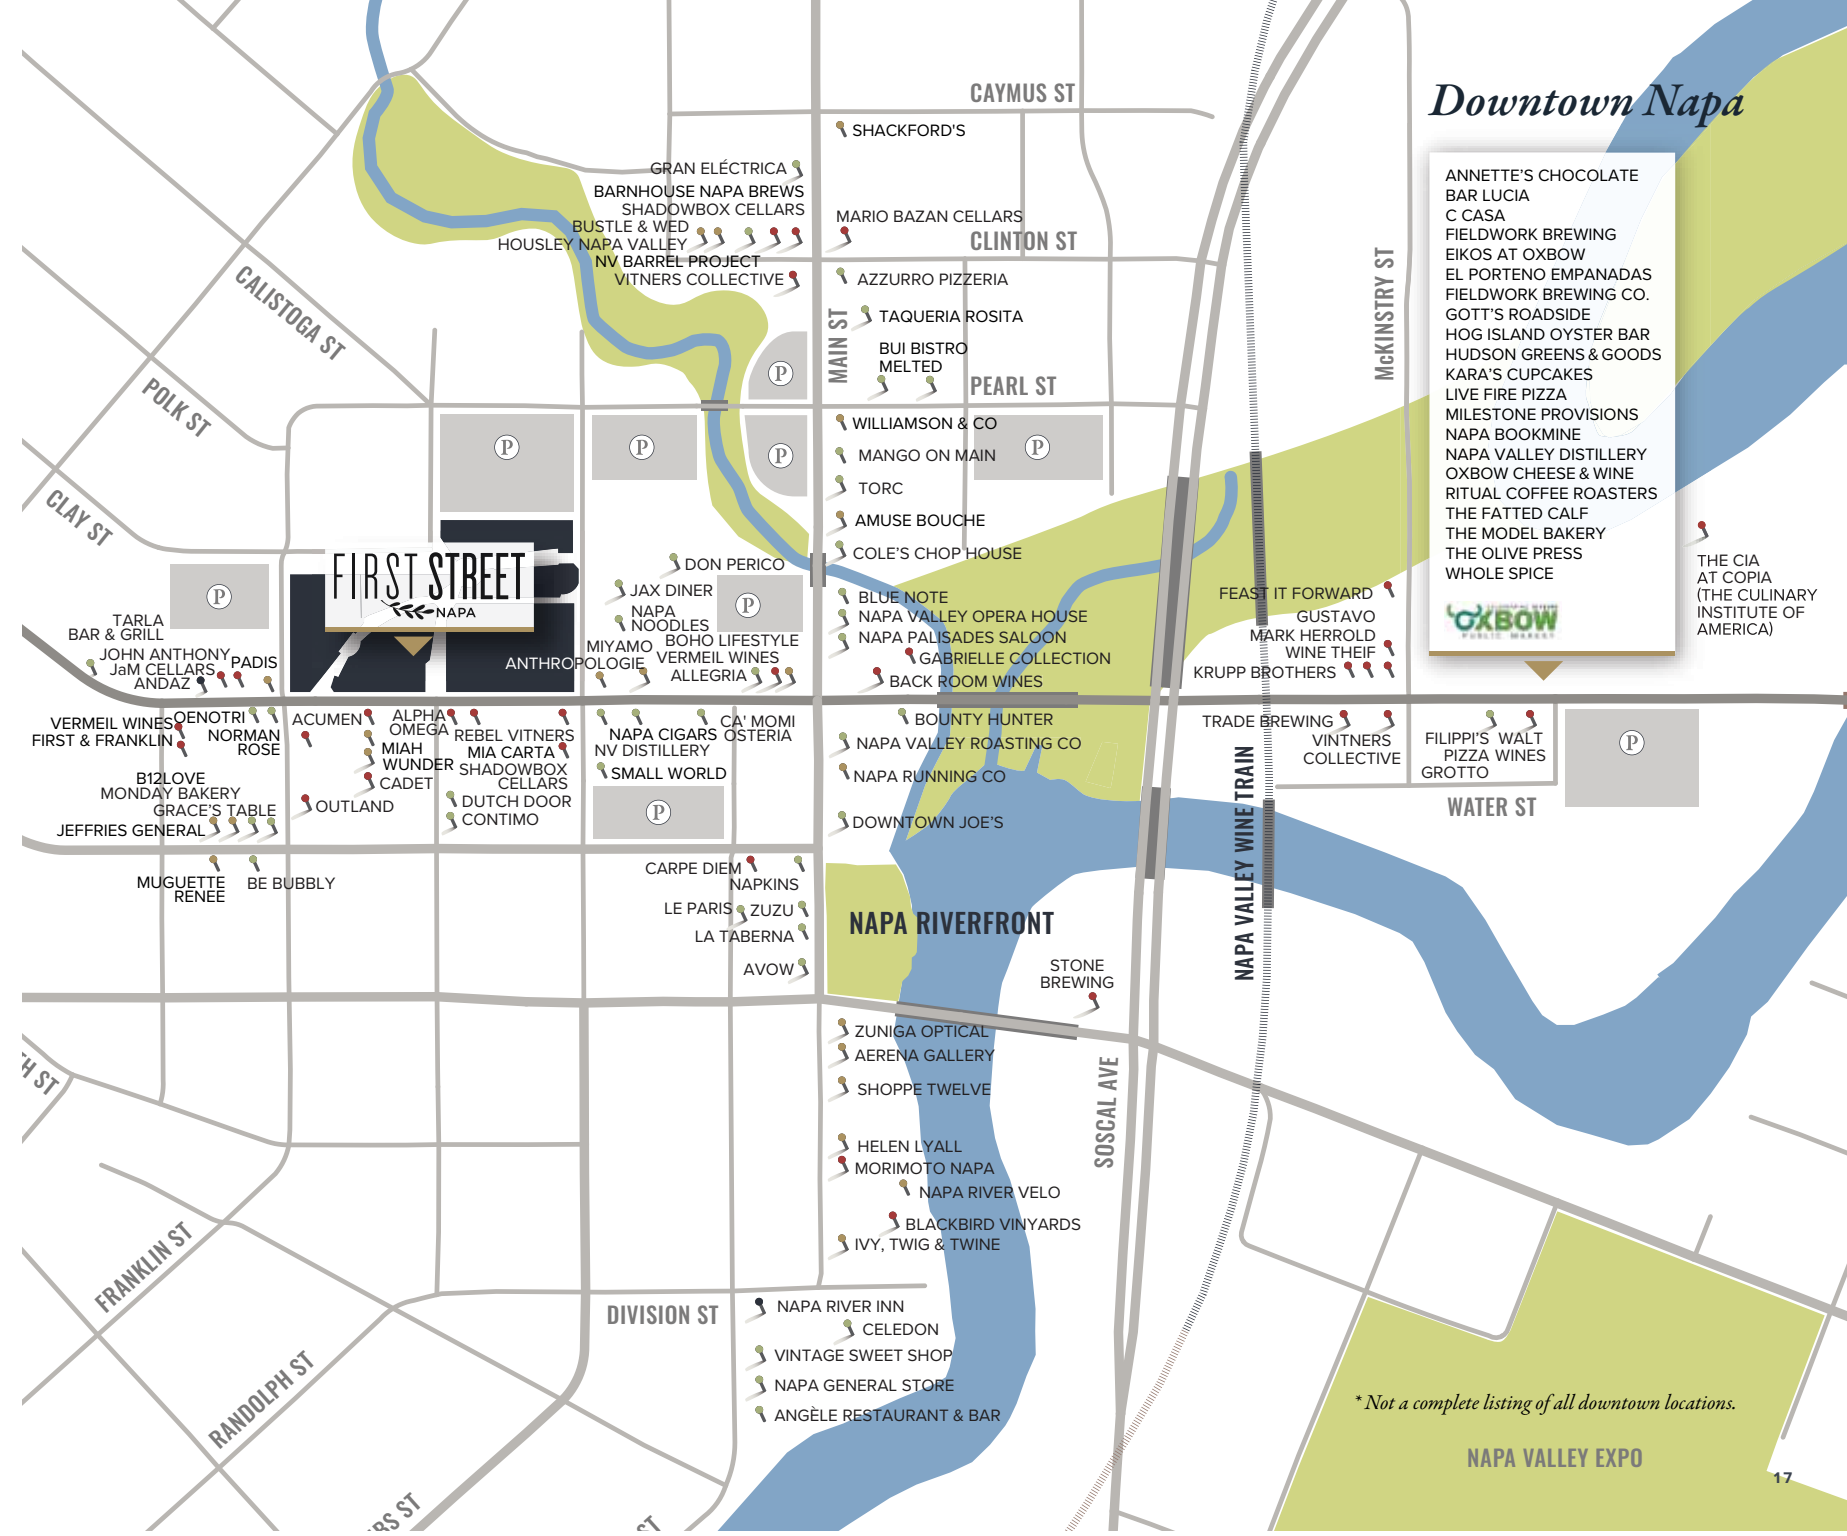

2022 & 2023 have elevated our count to 34 businesses and continues to grow.

A wide variety of new retail, tasting rooms and iconic brands have recognized the transformation taking place in downtown Napa and have chosen to become a part of it. Downtown Napa stays open later with many Napa tasting rooms and restaurants welcoming guests later than anywhere else in the valley. The Shops at First Street Napa has expanded the existing mix of prestigious merchants and designers and is providing a central vision to downtown Napa.

Downtown restaurants, tasting rooms and hotels with key stops like Oxbow Public Market and the Napa Riverfront are less than .5 miles from First Street Napa.

Experience Napa ACTIVITIES NOT TO MISS

The Napa Valley Welcome Center, (also opened at First Street Napa in 2020) allocates $7 Million dollars to spend on tourism marketing, including destination brand marketing in outside markets and group sales marketing to grow awareness, incentive trips and group meetings hosted in Napa Valley.

Napa's BottleRock Napa Valley, touted as Northern California's foremost music, wine and culinary festival, has shifted the visitor profile slightly younger. BottleRock's inaugural festival was hosted in 2013 and is now a sold-out event attracting 140,000 people over a 3-day period, with many events happening before the festival begins giving visitors a reason to stay longer.

Cabernet Season includes events like

Fortinet Golf Championship, Restaurant Week, Napa Valley Film Festival, Napa Valley Truffle Festival, Arts in April, and Flavor Napa Valley, among others.

Napa also provides a complete robust lifestyle with a connection and integration to the nature surrounding it.

Experience Napa in a different way by adding an outdoor element. Wander the beautiful trails that overlook the vineyards of Napa Valley. Find that secret waterfall. Cycle up valley on the Vine Trail - a 45 mile walking and biking system that connects the entire Napa Valley. Or enjoy Napa from the water - The Napa River offers opportunities to rent kayak & paddleboards with options for both guided and self guided tours from downtown.

Napa Valley has become a year-round destination, as the distinction between low season and high season is becoming less evident.

Something for Everyone

Over 3.8 million tourists visit each year to experience the Napa Valley. Not only does Napa exceed the expectations of the most discerning visitors, but aspirational visitors are drawn to the valley for its reputation as well.

Napa serves as the true heartbeat of, and gateway to the Napa Valley's 750 wineries, world-class resorts, and chef-driven restaurants.

Already internationally acclaimed for wine, food, events, hospitality, and wellbeing, Napa has become the quintessential shopping destination.

Our Consumer VISITOR PROFILES

First Street Napa has seen the momentum of being a centrally located destination that is drawing visitors for both day trips and long weekend stays. In Napa, it's about how you live and the quality of life. The people who reside here value authenticity and simplicity.
